

Corporate Sponsorship Form

2013 American Society for Engineering Education – Pacific South West Section Conference

April 18-20, 2013 – Riverside, California

Bourns College of Engineering at University of California Riverside

“Engineering Education in a Global Context”

The American Society for Engineering Education-Pacific South West Section (ASEE-PSW) will host their annual ASEE-PSW Conference at the Bourns College of Engineering at University of California Riverside on April 18-20, 2013.

This is an excellent opportunity to market your company while supporting ASEE-PSW in its efforts to advance best practices in engineering education. The ASEE-PSW is a multidisciplinary organization that coordinates the participation of educators from all engineering disciplines. Education leaders from throughout the southwest and beyond will be present to engage the latest in education trends and techniques through technical sessions, workshops, and professor and student poster sessions.

Your sponsorship will help continue this tradition of excellence in engineering education. The participation of engineering educators from universities, community colleges, K-12 STEM teachers, as well as industry partners and graduate students makes this conference one of the best of its kind. Join us as a sponsor at the 2013 ASEE-PSW Conference in Riverside, where sun is plentiful and engineering discovery is global.
