Course Compass Navigation Guide

This guide provides an overview of the menu buttons that are used for this course. This is what the course menu looks like and below is a description of each of the buttons.

This is the link to the main entry point for CourseCompass. Check here often for new announcements.

Here you will find all course materials: syllabus, calendar, lecture notes, assignment checklists, homework guidelines, and more.

This is a link to the online homework assignments. You may rework the problems unlimited times until the due date.

This is a link to online quizzes. You may rework the quizzes unlimited times until the due date.

This helps gauge mastery of course material and provides practice questions.

Here you find the textbook, student’s solution manual, answers to all odd problems, tables, formulas, glossary, technical help, and more.

This is a great reference resource. Here you find power point lectures, video presentations, and other multimedia content.

Link to the course discussion board. Post questions and find answers to your questions.

Here you can view your current grades.

Use this link to install the plug-ins and players needed for using CourseCompass.